

Save with Zebra's Printhead Protection Program

Replacement Printheads at No Cost

Printheads wear down. Quality suffers, the you pay for replacements. You may think that's the cost of doing business, but actually it's an unnecessary cost. When you enroll in Zebra's Printhead Protection Program, you receive new printheads and it costs you nothing.

The Zebra Printhead Protection Program enables you to receive new printheads as part of a package deal to reward the purchase of Zebra Certified Supplies.

The reality is you could save considerable amounts of money by participating in the Zebra Printhead Protection Program. Remove replacements printheads from your expense list.

Zebra Certified Supplies are optimized for use with Zebra printers. To participate in the Printhead Protection Program and benefit from replacement printheads, you simply need to commit to a label print volume using Zebra Certified Supplies. Once you have, all of your replacement printheads are covered within the program.
